
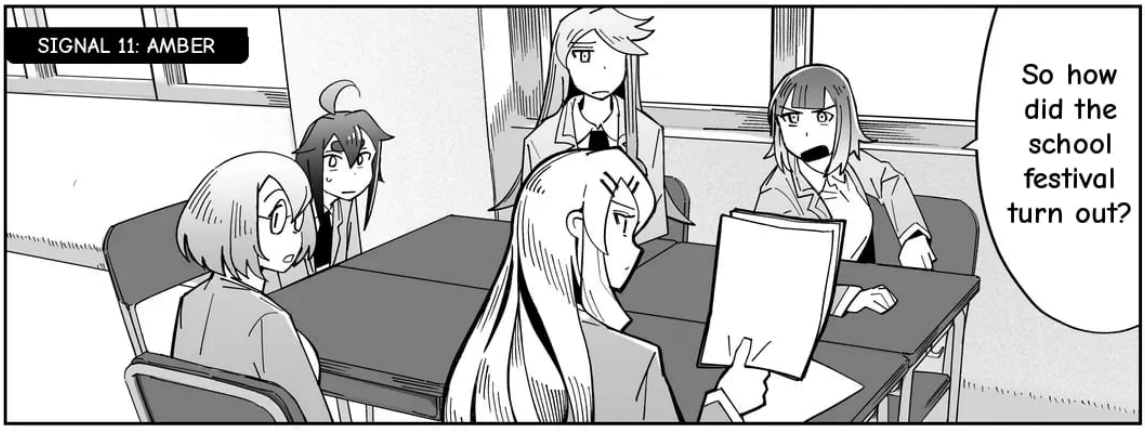
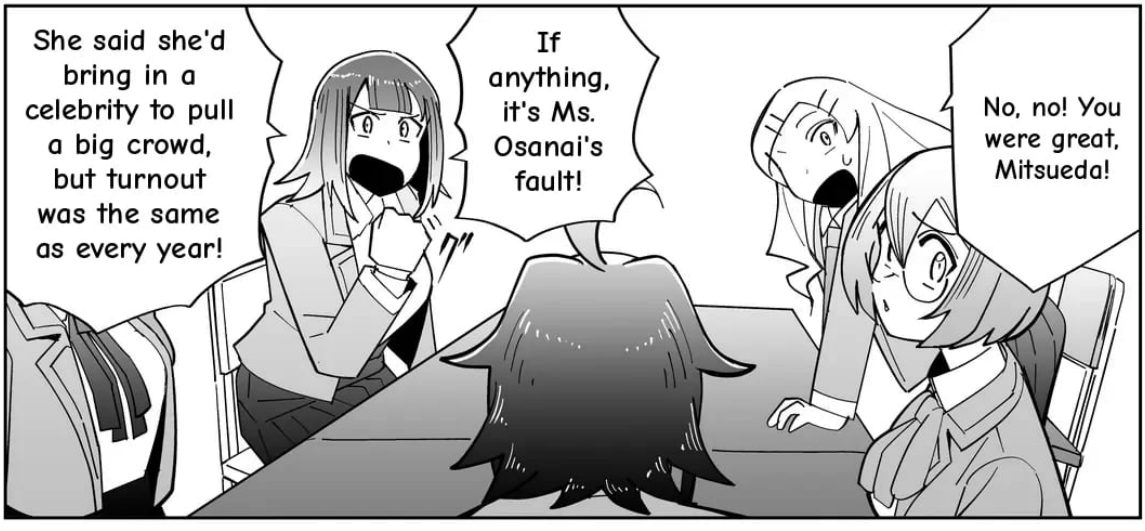
So...



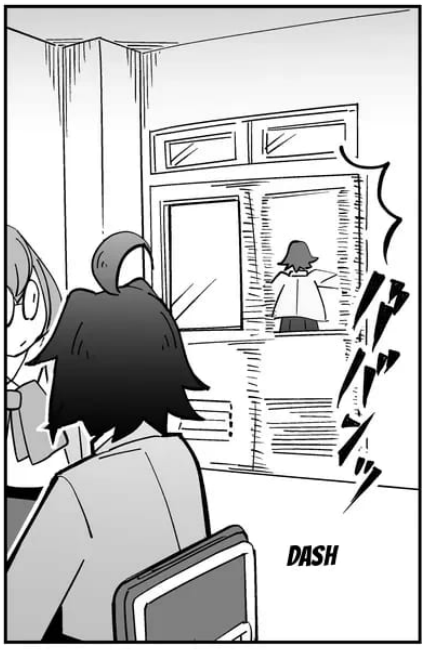
SIGNAL 11: AMBER
So how did the school festival turn out?

It's all because I wasn't good enough...
Ugh...

Honestly? Not good, not bad.
サッ//

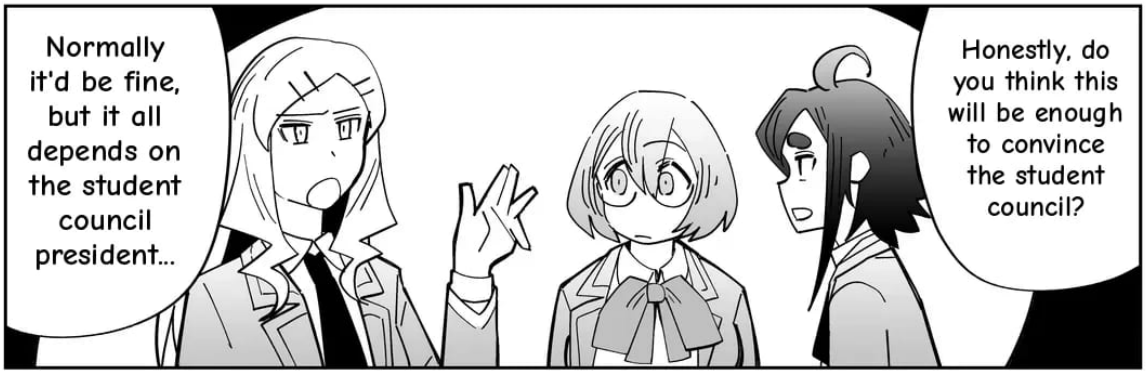


She said she'd bring in a celebrity to pull a big crowd, but turnout was the same as every year!
If anything, it's Ms. Osanai's fault!
No, no! You were great, Mitsueda!

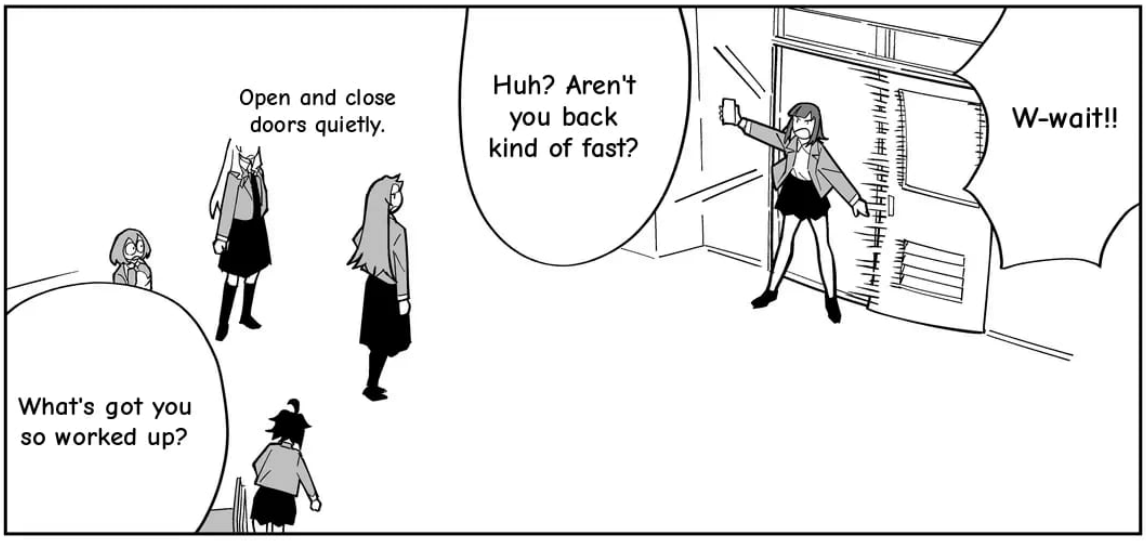


DASH

I'm gonna go give her a piece of my mind!
CLATTER



Normally it'd be fine, but it all depends on the student council president...
Honestly, do you think this will be enough to convince the student council?



Open and close doors quietly.
What's got you so worked up?
Huh? Aren't you back kind of fast?
W-wait!!

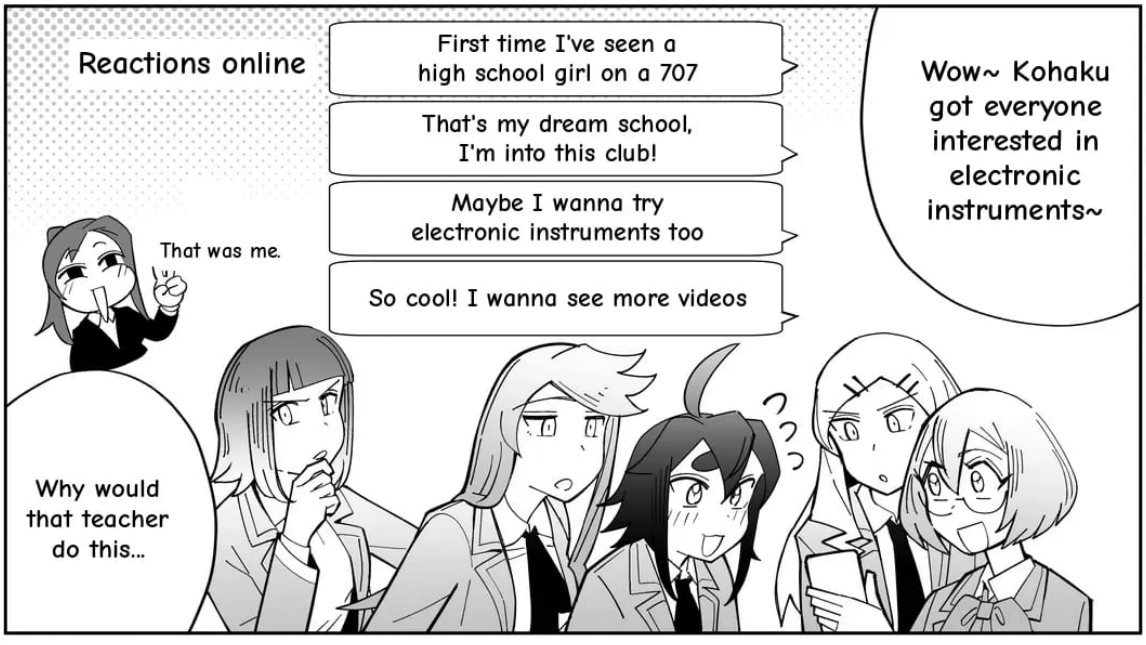
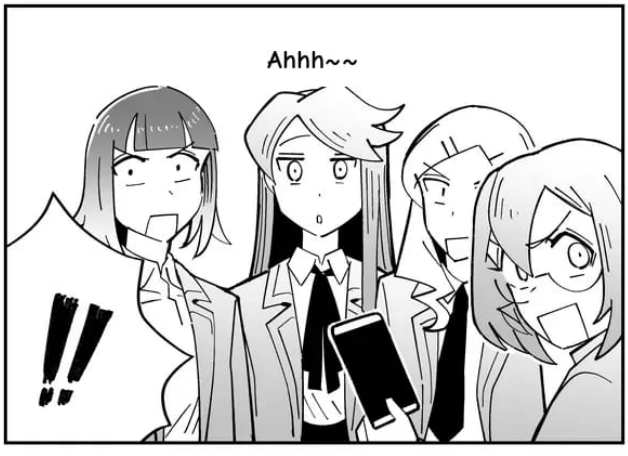
Come to think of it, I think Ms. Osanai was filming...

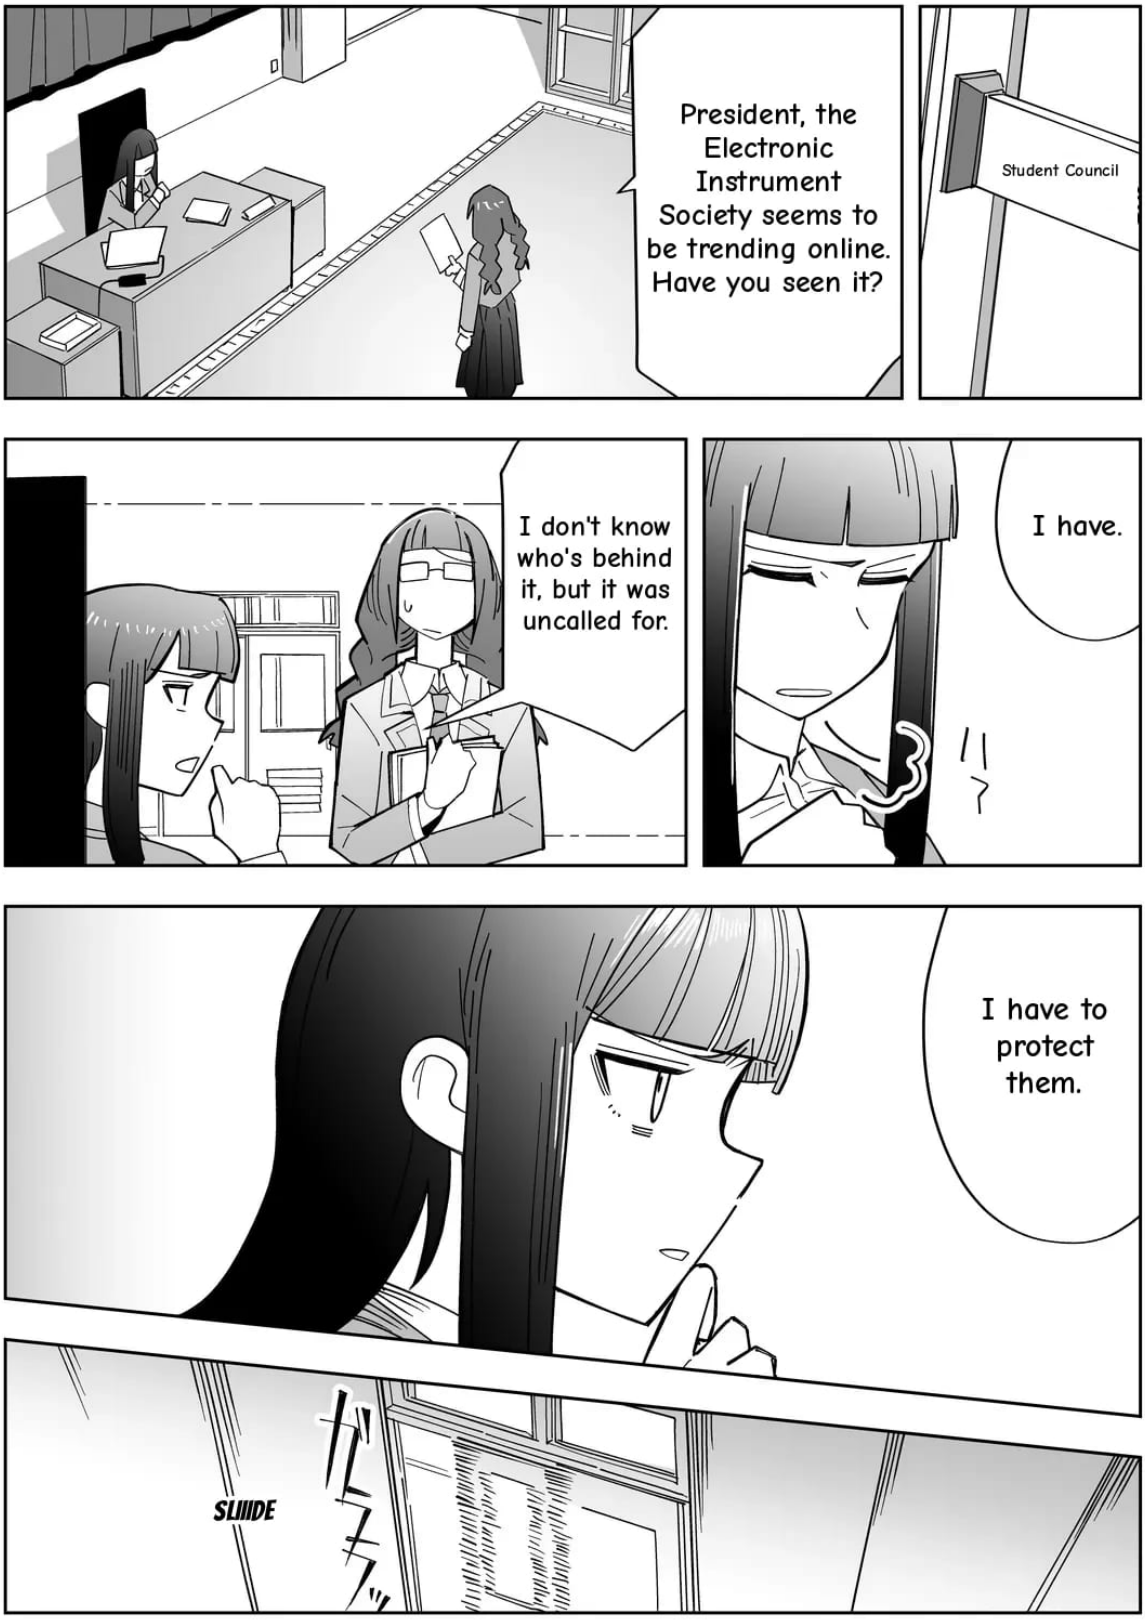


Reactions online
First time I've seen a high school girl on a 707
That's my dream school, I'm into this club!
Maybe I wanna try electronic instruments too
So cool! I wanna see more videos
Wow~ Kohaku got everyone interested in electronic instruments~
That was me.
Why would that teacher do this...



Ahhh~~
!!

But we can use this to convince the student council, right?



President, the Electronic Instrument Society seems to be trending online. Have you seen it?
Student Council
I don't know who's behind it, but it was uncalled for.
I have.
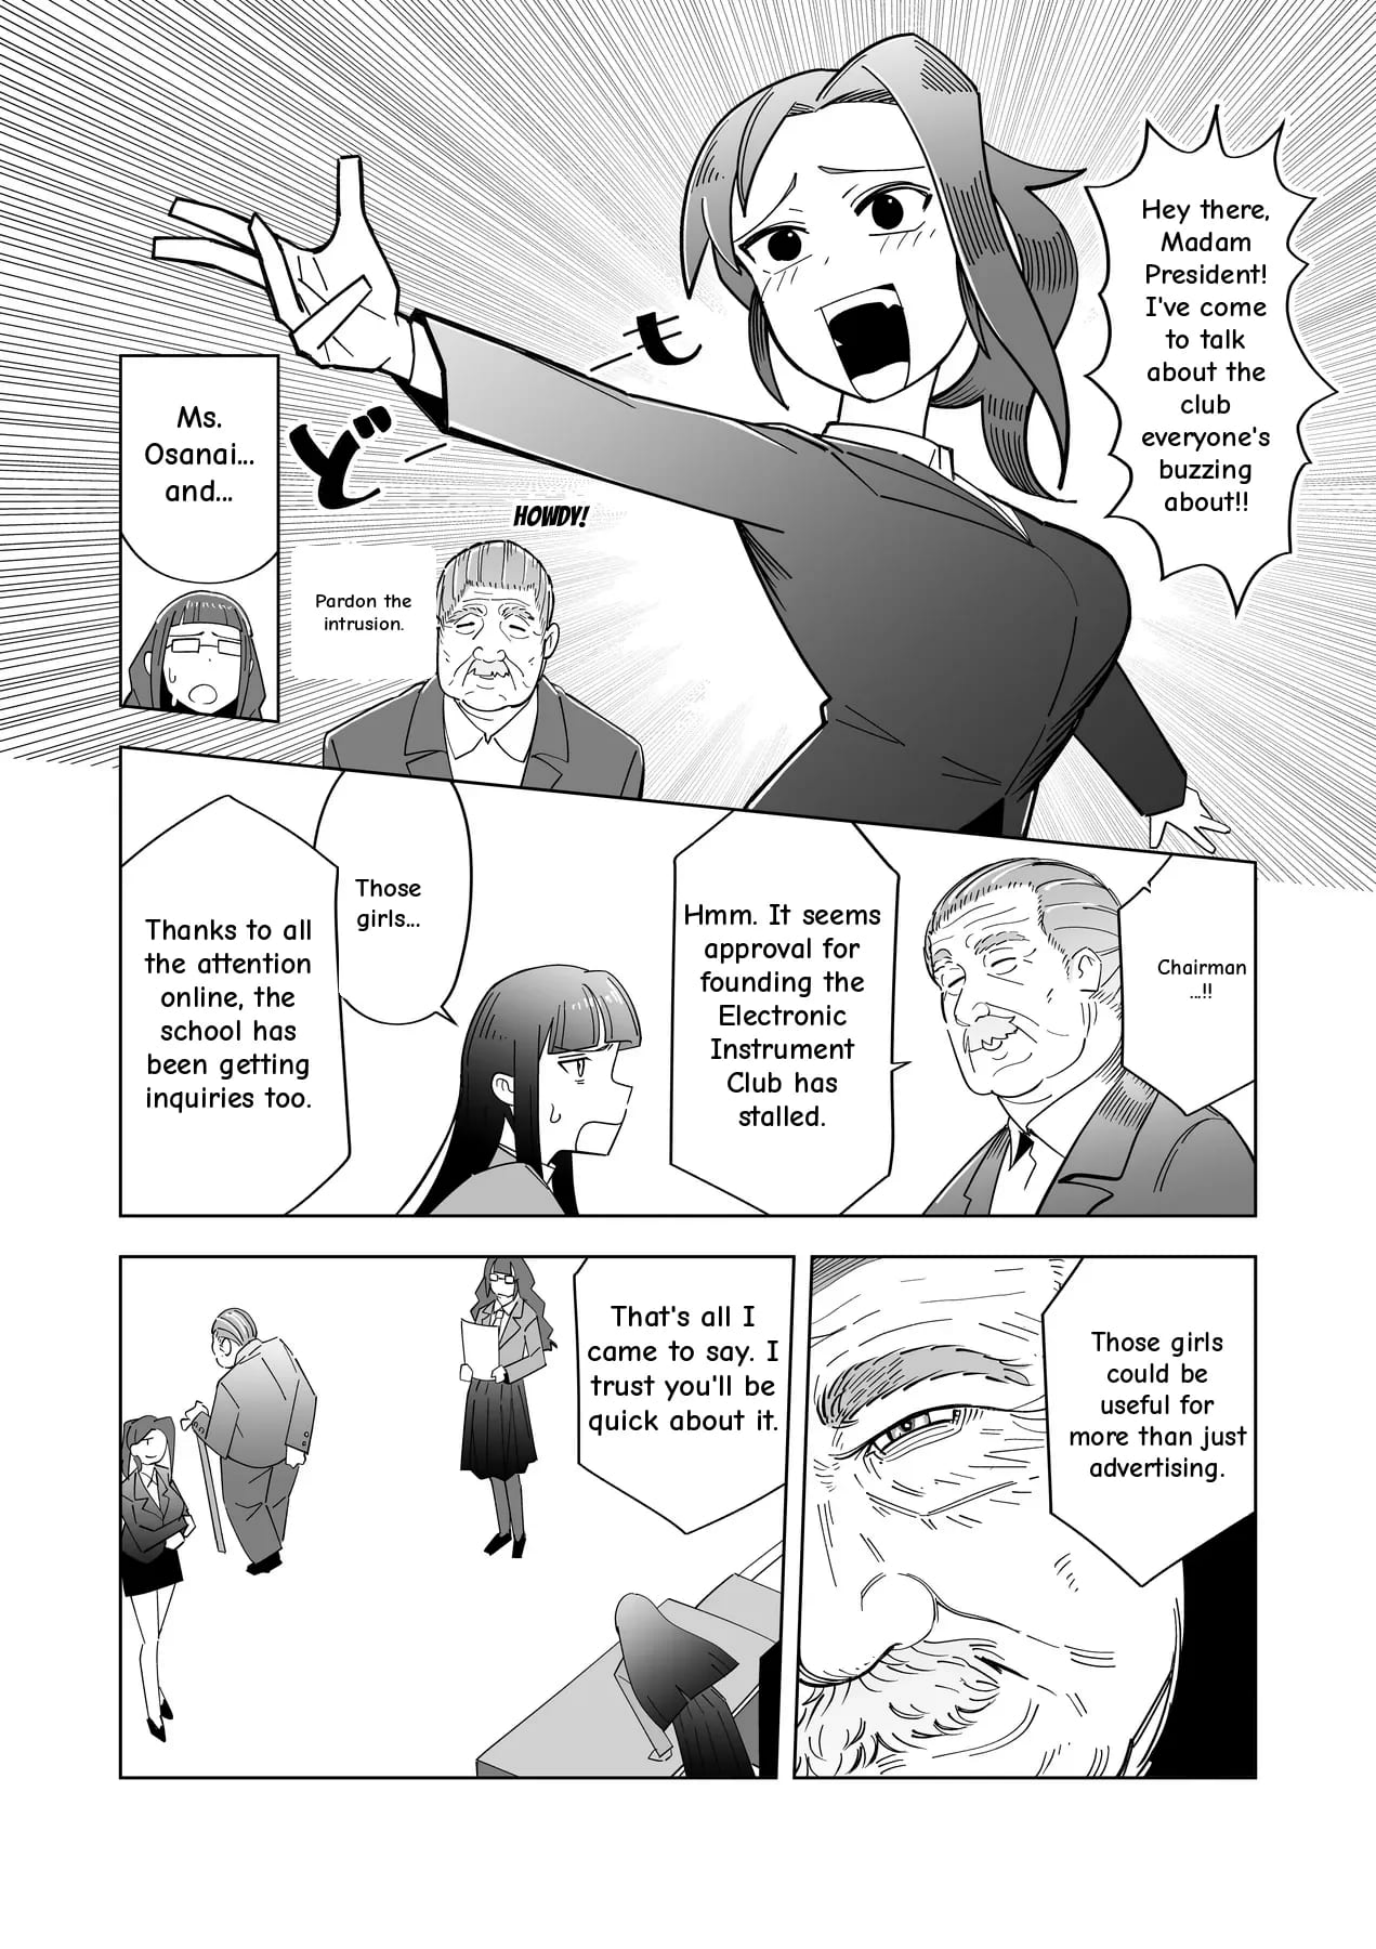
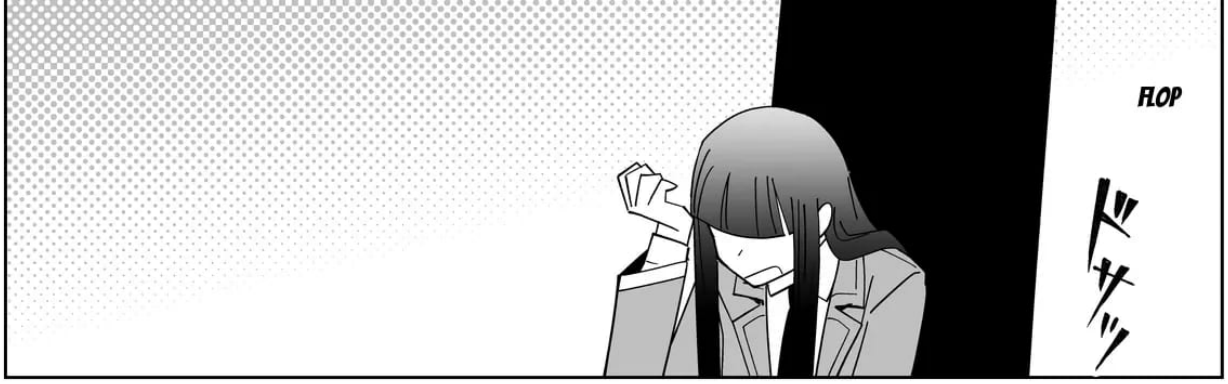
I have to protect them.
SLIIDE

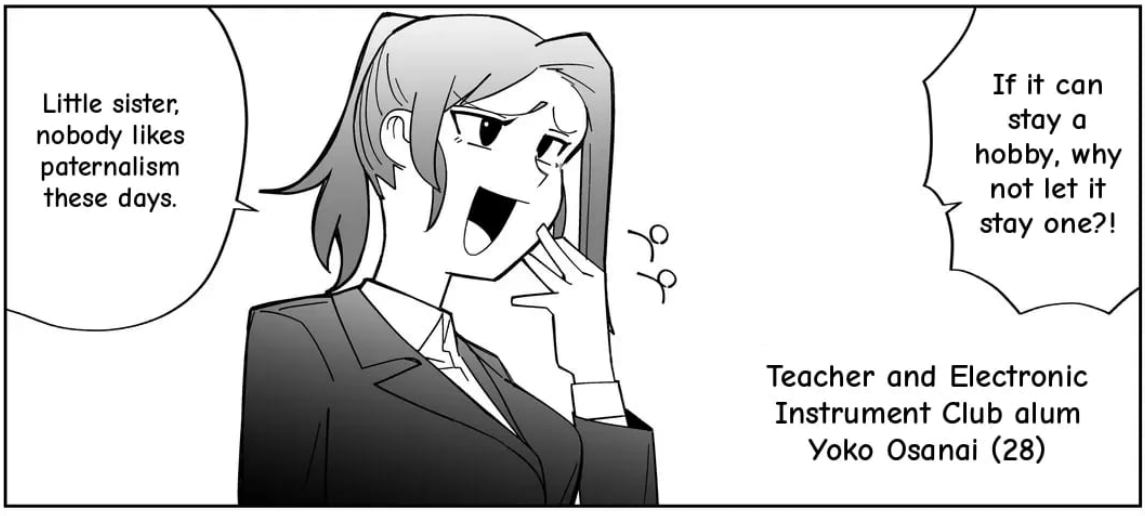


Hey there, Madam President! I've come to talk about the club everyone's buzzing about!!
ど
HOWDY!
Pardon the intrusion.
Ms. Osanai... and...
Chairman ...!!
Hmm. It seems approval for founding the Electronic Instrument Club has stalled.
Those girls...
Thanks to all the attention online, the school has been getting inquiries too.
That's all I came to say. I trust you'll be quick about it.
Those girls could be useful for more than just advertising.



FLOP
ドサッ

Now that old fox is going to take away those girls' independence and freedom!
Sis...!
Student Council President
Mizuki Osanai (3rd year)



Little sister, nobody likes paternalism these days.
If it can stay a hobby, why not let it stay one?!

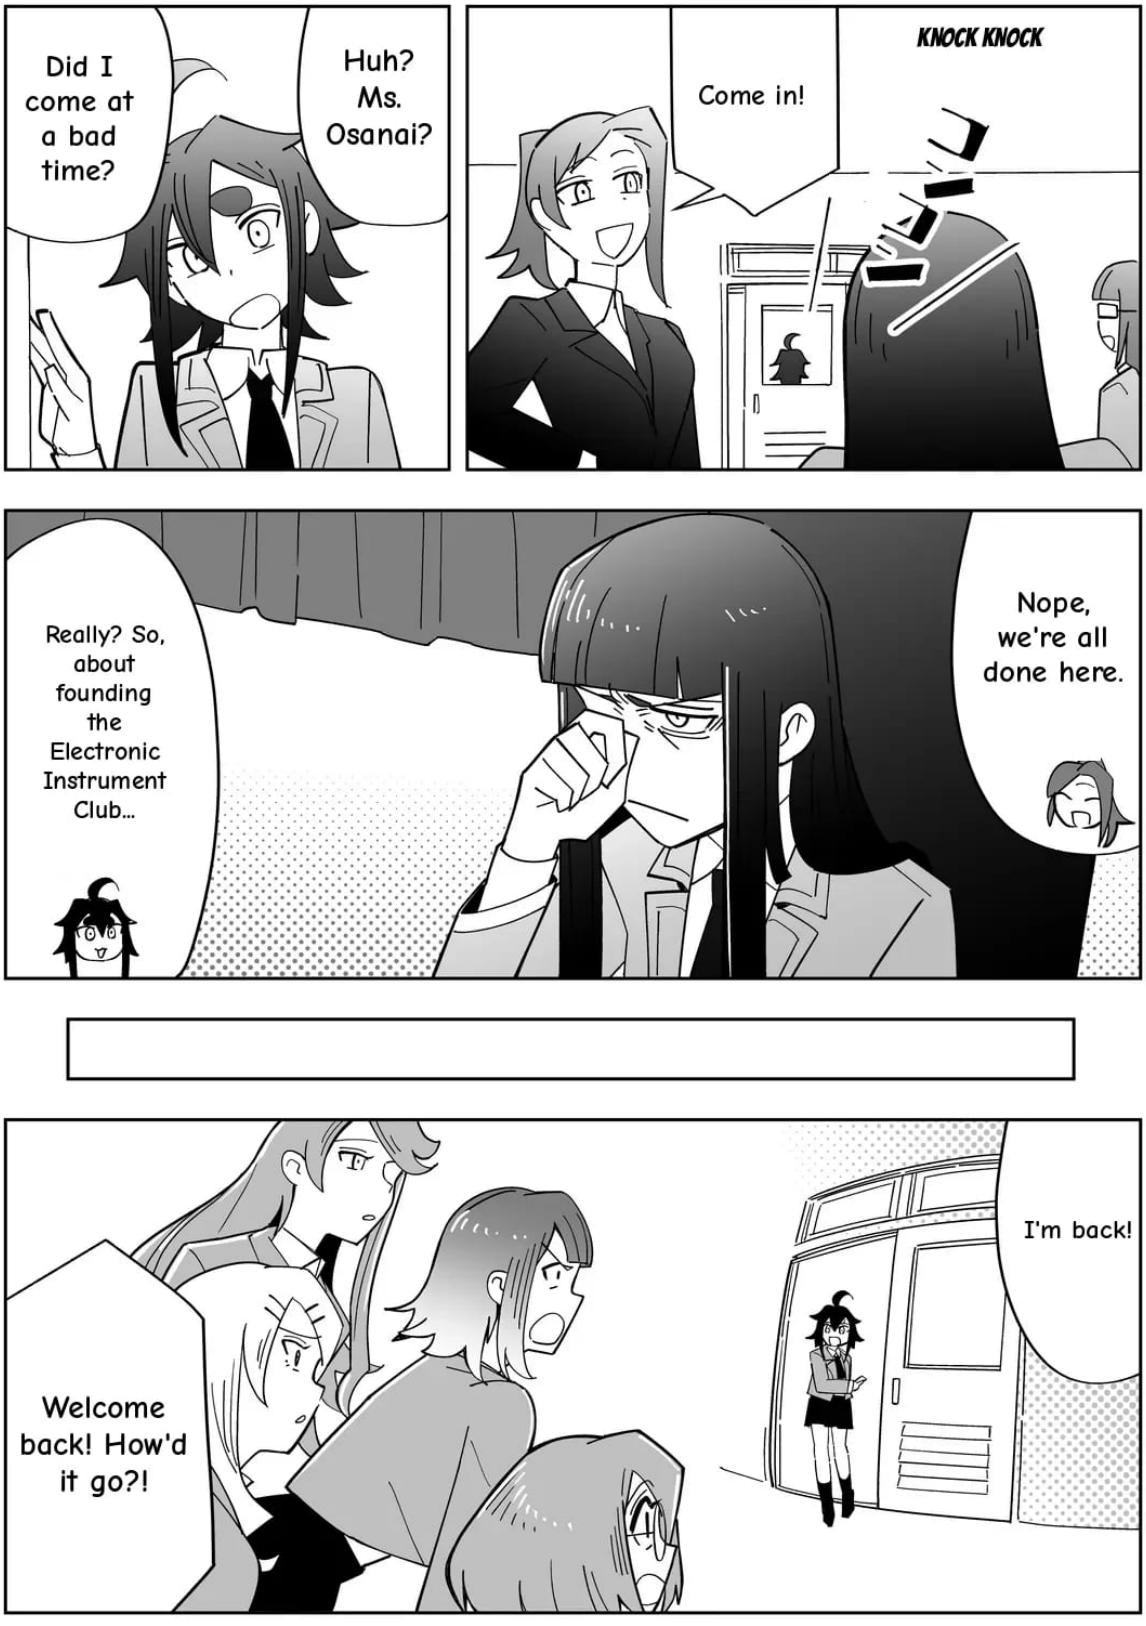
Ten years ago, you and your friends...!



Did I come at a bad time?
Huh? Ms. Osanai?
KNOCK KNOCK
Come in!
Really? So, about founding the Electronic Instrument Club...
Nope, we're all done here.
I'm back!
Welcome back! How'd it go?!

And we get to keep using the club room!
They approved the Electronic Instrument Club!

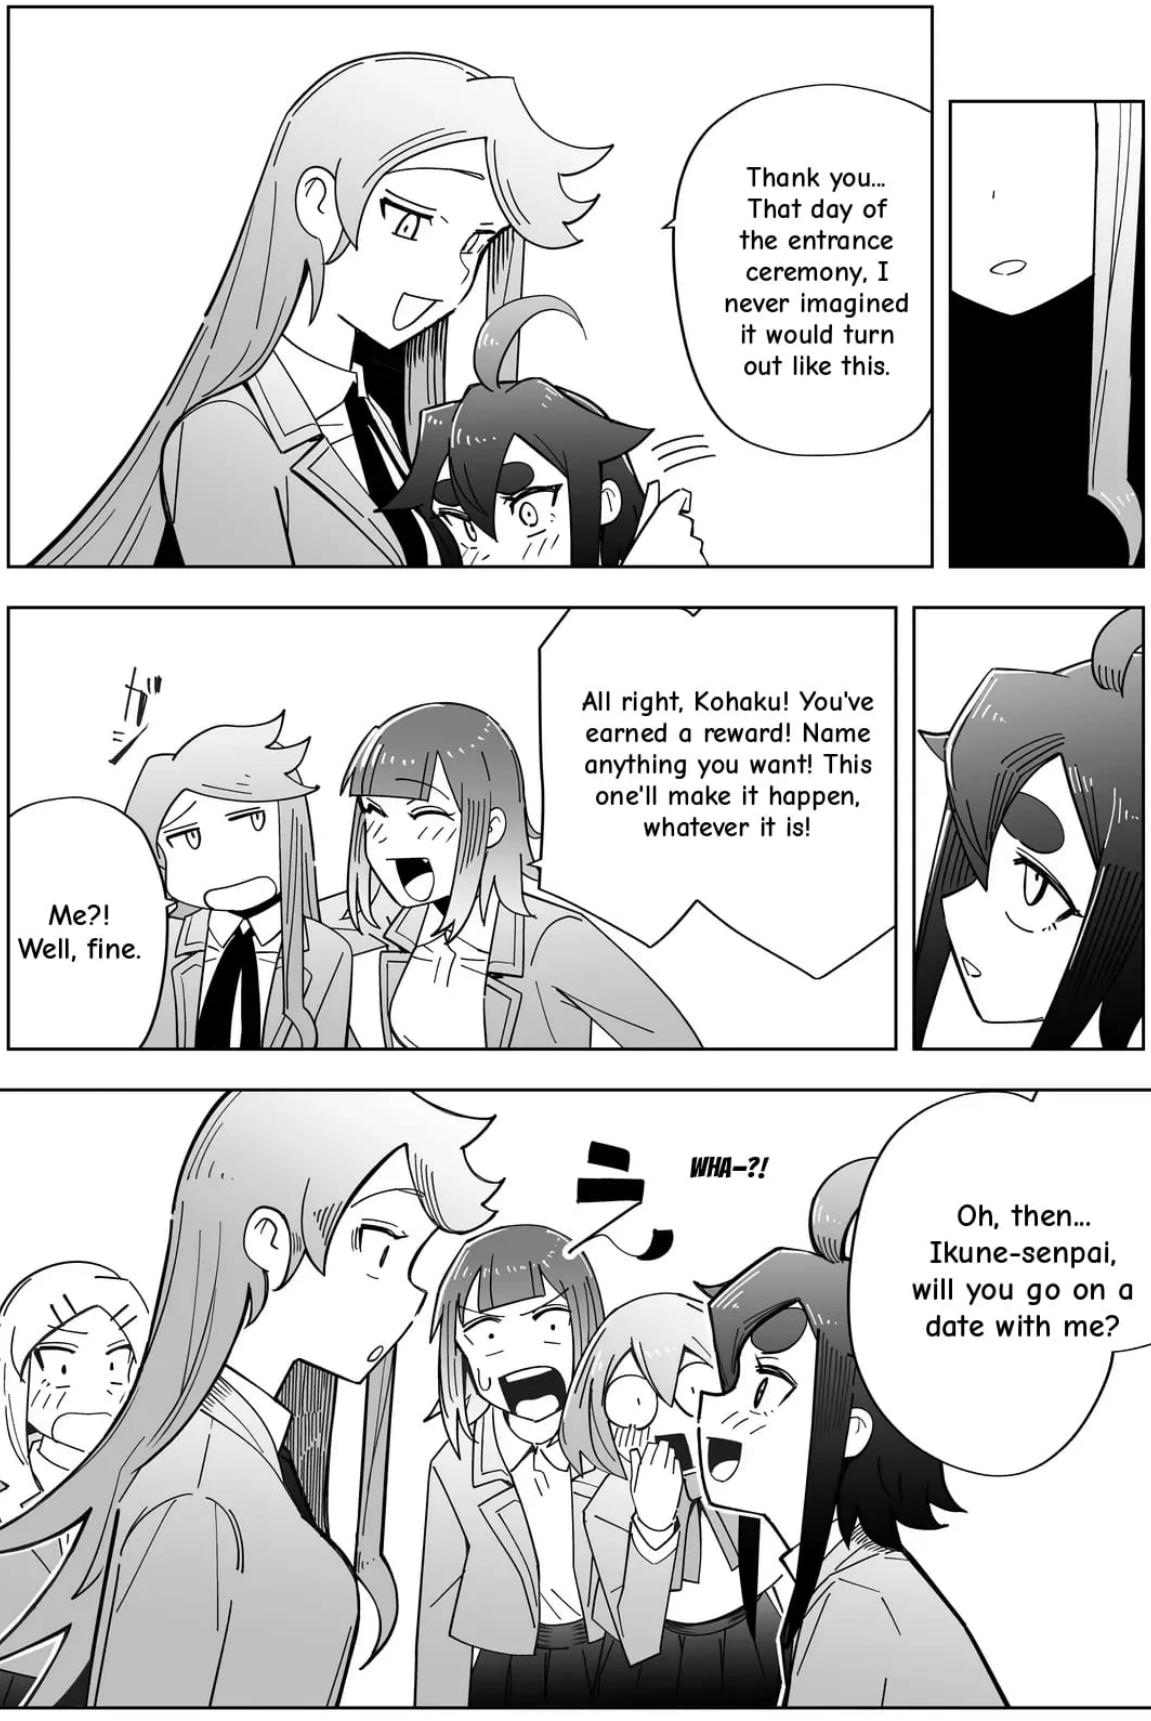
YAAAAAY!

It all paid off~
It's all thanks to everyone!
Amazing! You're amazing, Kohaku!

Looks like Ms. Osanai talked to her first, so it went right through.
The president looked sour, though
Oh~
Still, you won over the president faster than I expected.

I did it!

Ikune-senpai!
Hm?



Thank you... That day of the entrance ceremony, I never imagined it would turn out like this.
All right, Kohaku! You've earned a reward! Name anything you want! This one'll make it happen, whatever it is!
ガシ
Me?! Well, fine.
WHA-?!
Oh, then... Ikune-senpai, will you go on a date with me?

BEEP BEEP BEEP...

Wait! I don't have time for this!
Is the signal coming straight off the microcontroller? Nobody would add a dedicated sound IC, right? The volume pot turns it down, but is there an amp? Or just a voltage divider? Maybe I'll open it up...
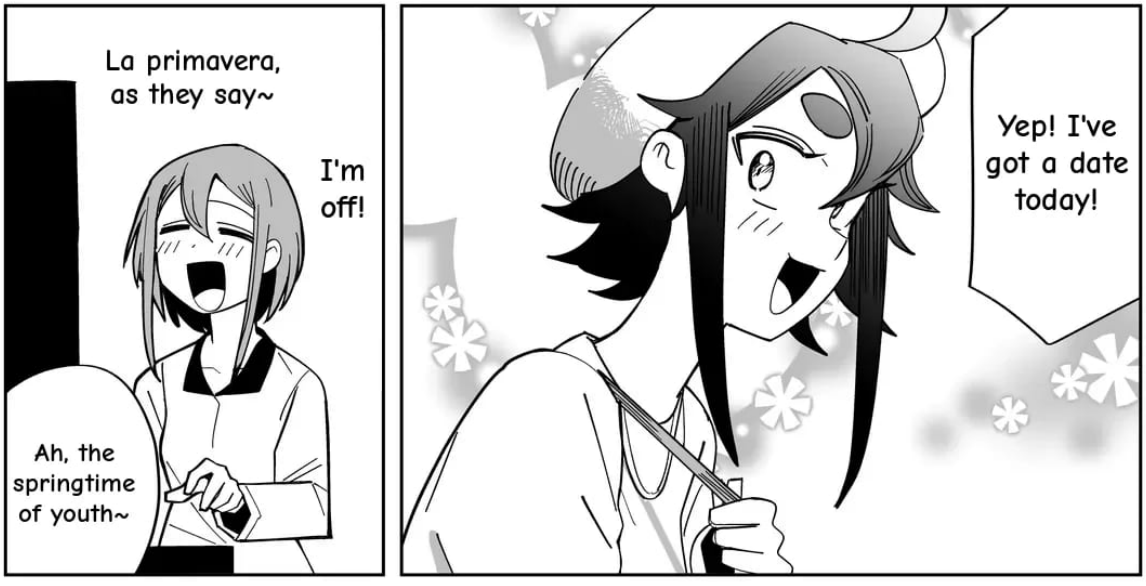
That's a square wave...
CLACK

Huh? Sis, are you going out?
TAP TAP



La primavera, as they say~
I'm off!
Ah, the springtime of youth~
Yep! I've got a date today!

Sorry to keep you waiting!
Not at all. Shall we go?
We're seeing this through!
Want to check that place out?

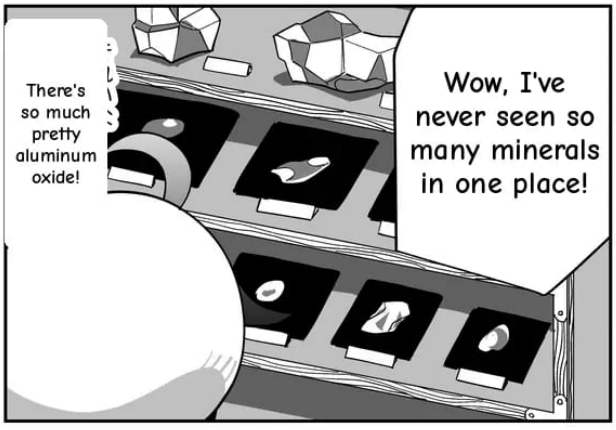
Senpai,
Hm?

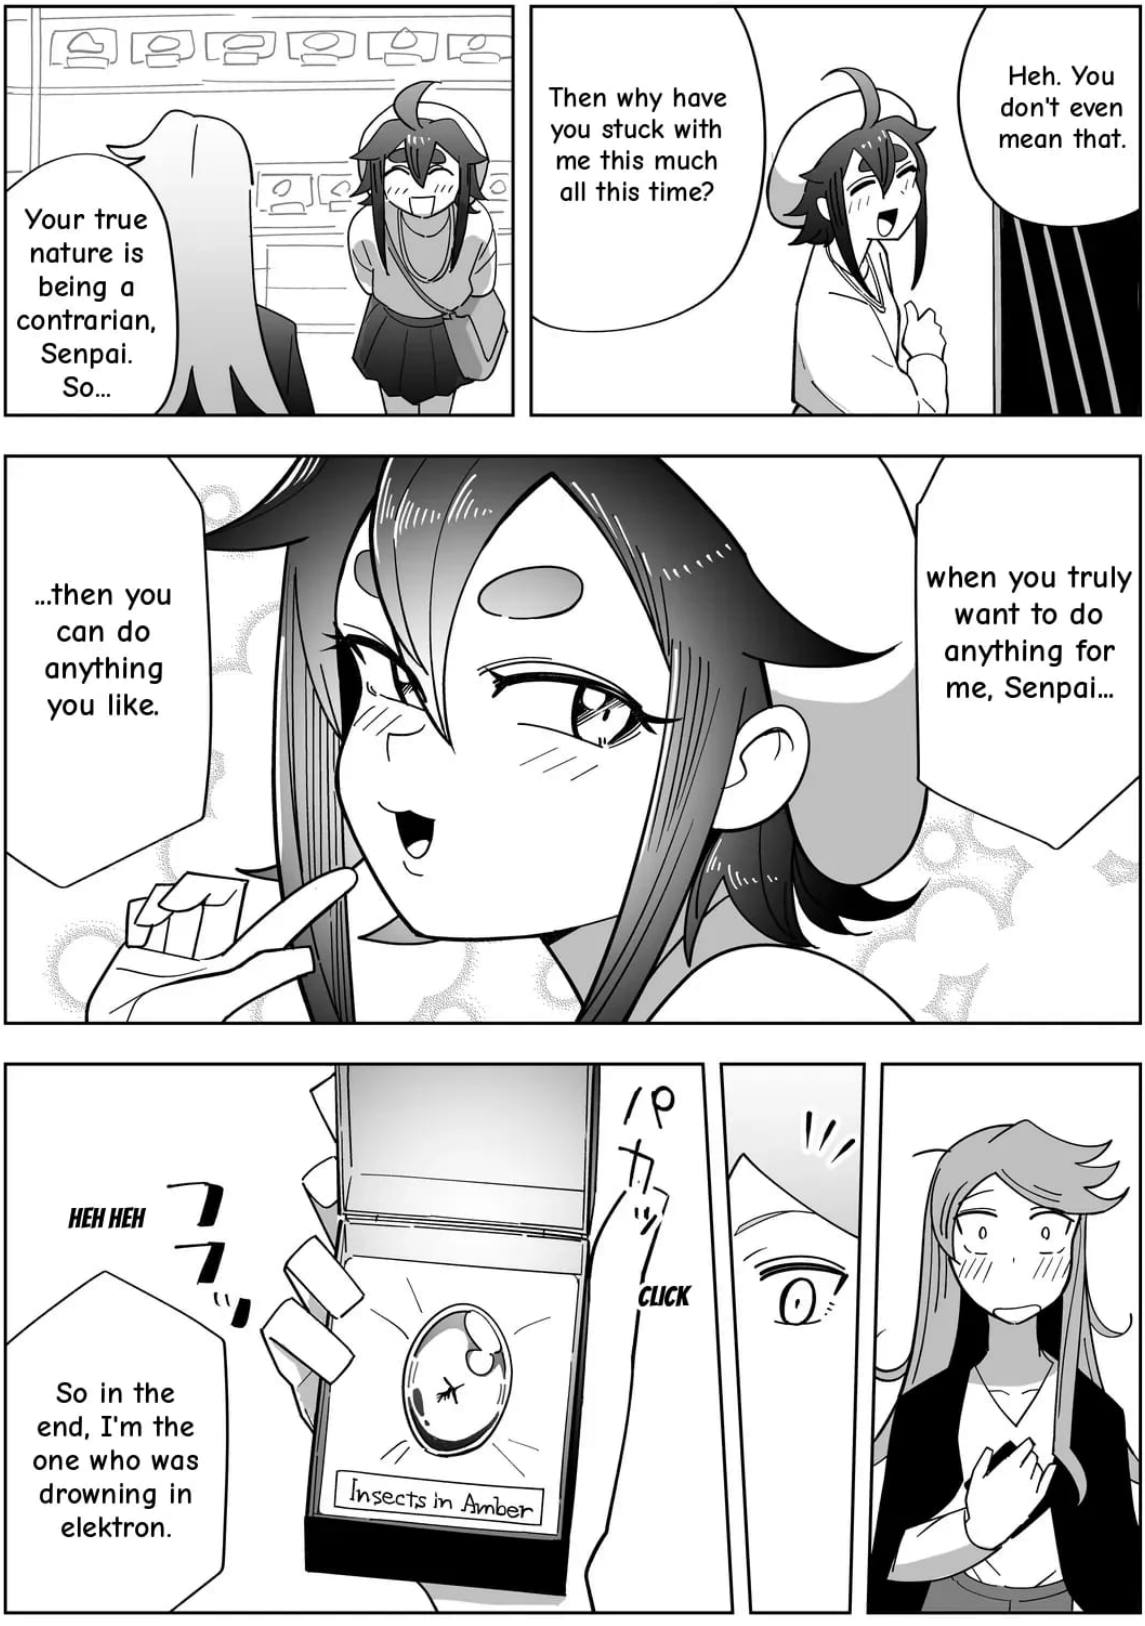


There's so much pretty aluminum oxide!
Wow, I've never seen so many minerals in one place!

It'd be a shame to lose all the legacy and legends built up over the years on my watch.
Senpai, on the day of the entrance ceremony, you didn't care if the club just disappeared, did you?

You were so cute I thought I'd tease you a little, and before I knew it, the whole thing snowballed.
Huh.
...So you noticed.

I didn't care about the club's history. I was just going with the flow.
My true nature is laziness and pleasure.
Even today, Kohaku, if you want, I could do anything at all for you. Shall I?



Your true nature is being a contrarian, Senpai. So...
Then why have you stuck with me this much all this time?
Heh. You don't even mean that.
...then you can do anything you like.
when you truly want to do anything for me, Senpai...

Sigh...
C'mon, we were worried!

What do you mean, 'oh well'?!
Aren't those only good for rectifying?
Are there any electronic instruments that use raw minerals?!
Oh well. Wanna all hit a music store?
NEXT SIGNAL WILL BE MORE BETTER...!
